LEVINSON (cont'd from page 1)

Whether playing before European world leaders or re-creating Benny Goodman's famous Carnegie Hall concerts to audiences around the world, Dan Levinson is one of the most respected jazz clarinetists performing today.

TRI-STATE JAZZ SOCIETY, the leading purveyor of traditional jazz and swing concerts in the Delaware Valley, is pleased to introduce this outstanding group to the Delaware County arts scene.

"Three Benny Opera is my three-clarinet salute to the greatest clarinet player of all time. I've got two outstanding young clarinetists with me: 19-year-old Aaron Johnson (recently moved to New York from Oregon and attending the Manhattan School of Music), and Pete Anderson, a few years Aaron's senior and getting his Master's Degree at Julliard. The brilliant vibes prodigy, 23-year-old Matt Hoffmann, will be with us again, along with Kevin Dorn on drums and a sensational pianist, Jan Frenkel." — Dan Levinson

Hosting the event is a first-time venue for TSJS – The Wallingford Community Arts Center, just outside Media in Delaware County – an exciting new venue for jazz concerts.

Jeff Barnhart, one of the world's major traditional jazz pianists, entertains with humor and intelligence. This is a rare opportunity to catch him in the Philadelphia area. He plays a wide range of trad styles - ragtime, New Orleans marches and dances, Dixieland stompers, boogie-woogie, Great American Song Book -- most in the stride tradition with a heavy, fast left hand. His vocals include some specialty pieces with hilarious lyrics. Jeff has performed at nearly every trad jazz festival in the USA, Canada, and abroad with such luminaries as Fred Vigorito, Noel Kaletsky, Bob Wilber, Jim Cullum, Scott Philbrick, the Midiri brothers, Dan Levinson, Bria Skonberg and "hundreds" more. He is today's trad jazz ambassador to the world -- Move over Louis!

For music samples and more information, visit his Web site at www.jeffbarnhart.com. Also check out this virtuosic performance on You Tube: www.youtube.com/watch?v=g5FfzaVYWhw&feature=related.

REVIEW - JERRY RIFE'S RHYTHM KINGS

The Time: 2:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m., Sunday, February 13, 2011

The Place: Brooklawn American Legion Hall, 11 Railroad Ave., Brooklawn, NJ

The Band: Jerry Rife, leader, clarinet and soprano sax; Dan Tobias, cornet; Pete Reichlin, trombone; Pat Mercuri, guitar and banjo; Gary Cattley, tuba, Lenny Pucciatti, drums

The month of February is usually Mardi Gras time, but since the celebration will take place in March this year, we thought we'd begin the festivities anyway with Jerry Rife's Rhythm Kings.

Dan Tobias leads the Mardi Gras Parade

Mr. Rife made a point of keeping the festivities in a traditional vein, by explaining at the beginning of the concert that Gary Cattley would provide the bass work on tuba, and Pat Mercuri would make most of his contributions on banjo. The result was a joyous, swinging concert.

The first set of the program began with a lively march-swing version of Paul Barbarin's "Bourbon Street Parade" with Dan Tobias building a solo on a repeated phrase on cornet. Rife's clarinet rose from the depths of the chalumeau register into the clarion and altissimo. On "Sunday", Pat Mercuri switched back to amplified guitar, dividing his solo with chords and single string lines.

However, the best in this early set were Ellington's "Creole Love Call" and "Crazy Rhythm." The former had Tobias and Reichlin re-creating the Duke's "pep section" while the latter was an all out circus with Tobias' cornet taking on the role of a trapeze artist, flying all around the beat. Rife's clarinet rode the Ferris wheel with arpeggios abounding, Mercuri's guitar was the equestrian rider, delicately doing handstands over the rhythm, Reichlin was the lion tamer, fending off the big cats with his trombone, and Cattley the strong man, wowing the crowd with his tubular biceps.

There were many more memorable musical moments in the latter sets, but one stands out, "Just A Closer Walk With Thee." Through the afternoon, the horns of Dan Tobias and Pete Reichlin were in a communicative mood. On several of the tunes, either one would pick up a phrase at the end of the other's solo, and use it as a starting point for their solo. On "Closer Walk", the horns were locked in an all out conversation – animated, combative, even quoting the Chicken Dance! Mercuri's guitar seemed unaffected by the brassy banter, but Rife's clarinet had had enough, and took an "outside" solo – off the bandstand and into the audience!

As I stated earlier, Mardi Gras will occur in March this year, but with Rife's band and millions of Mardi Gras beads distributed, there just had to be a Mardi Gras Parade. On the closing "When the Saints Go Marching In," Tobias, Rife and Reichlin (in that order), followed by several TSJS faithful, engaged in an impromptu strut around the Legion Hall. A fitting way to end the concert.

For those who missed the Mardi Gras beads and revelry, there will be another opportunity to get beads and revel at the March 8th JazzBridge benefit concert at the Collingswod Community Center with Al Harrison. –Jim McGann

Right after you go under the railroad bridge, make a hard right. This is Broad Street in Palmyra. Continue for about a mile on Broad Street. After the second (functioning, not blinking yellow) light (Cinnaminson Avenue), you will see Schwering's Hardware and Weber's Funeral Home on the left, the Riverline Station on the right. Next light is Main Street. Make a left. Take the immediate right fork onto Howard Street. Go two blocks. The Porch Club is on the far right corner.
